Gerda Spillmann Swiss Skin Care & Cosmetics Introduces RAO - Renaissance Active Oil- In a New Eco-Friendly, Fashionable Pump

Gerda Spillmann Swiss Skin Care & Cosmetics, which combines both traditional, time tested formulas and cutting edge technology, is bringing to the consumer the Renaissance Active Oil, R.A.O., in a new, eco-friendly, easier-to-use Pump Packaging.

This remarkable combination of 100% pharmaceutical grade ingredients includes a blend of highly refined essential oils and a refreshing, natural citrus scent. Formulated with Sesame Seed Oil, Orange Oil, Lemon Peel Oil, Citrus Fruit Oil, and Vitamin E the R.A.O. promotes moisture retention and acts as a barrier to harmful environmental irritants. The use of essential oils allows R.A.O. to be a non-greasy, fast absorbing formula that will not leave your skin feeling heavy or oily. Individuals with severely dry, mature or damaged skin can begin to see a balanced, moisturizing effect on their skin after just the first application.

The new Eco-Friendly packaging, can be returned to any recycling facility, while maintaining an air-tight seal to keep R.A.O. from being contaminated with other products, dirty applicators or impure airborne particles.

R.A.O. has given many clients their confidence back after suffering varying skin conditions from pregnancy stretch marks to chemotherapy treatments. The high quality, soothing ingredients of R.A.O. help to rejuvenate dry and damaged skin while reducing the visible effects of burns, scar tissue, and stretch marks. Daily use of the R.A.O. and circular massage can also help to soothe away acne scars and deep cracks in the heels or elbows by sealing in moisture, preventing any further loss of critical hydration necessary for the skin to regenerate itself.

BENEFITS OF RAO:

- Helps to rejuvenate dry, damaged skin.
- Aids in reducing the visible effects of burns, scars, and stretch marks.
- Helps to reduce discomfort and redness caused from sunburn.
- Provides additional protection from razor burns when applied before shaving
- Helps soothe redness and swelling after laser treatments.

Renaissance Active Oil is safe to use with most skin conditions such as Rosacea or Eczema.
